Schiff-Martini & Cie. appoints new partners

Auditing and tax advisory firm focuses on sustainable growth

Frankfurt am Main - The auditing and tax advisory firm Schiff-Martini & Cie. GmbH (SMC) is expanding its management team: Sebastian Weimer and Steffen Schreiner have been appointed as new partners with effect from 1 April 2025. With this decision, SMC is emphasising the importance of long-term career prospects within the firm.

With a team of around 100 professionals, SMC specialises in assisting foreign companies establish subsidiaries in Germany. It currently services approximately 600 German subsidiaries of companies from 40 different countries worldwide. Over 75% of its clients are headquartered in the United States, United Kingdom and Japan.

Sebastian Weimer started his career at SMC with a dual study program for a Bachelor of Arts. Since his appointment as a tax advisor in 2017, he has been heading the Accounting Advisory Services team. As a versatile expert, he manages the service line financial statement preparation and accounting, tax compliance, and advising international clients.

Steffen Schreiner, a business economist and experienced tax advisor with many years of experience at a Big Four company (including an assignment in India), joined SMC in 2017 and has been heading the Payroll Services team. His expertise covers wage tax and social security law as well as the aspects of international employee assignments (expatriates).

Both colleagues stand out for their excellent professional expertise, leadership skills, and their dedication to both clients and employees.

SMC consciously focuses on promoting and developing its own talents. "The appointment of Sebastian and Steffen is indicative of our corporate culture: Those who are committed and willing to take on responsibility are in good hands with us," says Anita Bolkovac, Managing Partner.

Expanding the partnership is not only a significant step for the company but also a response to the increasing demands in the tax advisory and auditing sector. "The demand for highly qualified tax advisors and auditors is higher than ever in light of growing regulatory requirements and global challenges. With this step, we are sending a clear signal for sustainable growth and long-term stability," explains Peter Zimmermann, Managing Partner.

SMC's core business is focussed on providing German subsidiaries of foreign groups with a full-service concept: From start-up advice with legal and tax structuring, accounting, payroll and compliance, tax advice, M&A transaction advice, visa and work permit services, to support in selecting a business location, with notarial services, legal and general business advice together with the respective cooperation partners.
